

The School Witnesses the Commitment of a Seventh Grader to the Catholic Religion

Every month the school students from kindergarten to grade eight attend mass together. Father Sam Young, our pastor, normally celebrates these masses with the school. However, Father Robert Leavitt said mass for the school on October 11th this year.

Gregory Blum, seventh grade student at Our Lady of Grace School, stood up in front of the entire school population to declare his commitment to being a Catholic. He had been working with Dr. Jack Buchner, Pastoral Associate for Faith Formation, since last spring to prepare for this day. Gregory joined OLGS when he was a sixth grader. He felt called to the Catholic faith during his first year as he studied religion daily. Father Leavitt and Dr. Buchner helped Gregory make his profession of faith during the mass.

Dr. Buchner gave Greg his first communion.

Greg's parents, Michael and Sharlene, celebrated this wonderful occasion with their son.
